Nothing to report so far, bills are starting to come in however.

Chief's Liaison report

Deputy Chief Roger Krupp reported the following:

IMAT cards for the division are being updated. They are now being done individually by each department instead of by zones.

Using IMresponding.com is still being discussed and tested, more information to come.

A list of approved IMAT members was given to John Kiser.

The division will begin accepting applications for IMAT positions in April for next year.

Committee Reports

Monthly Training

John Kiser reported the following:

The notices for training opportunities for the next 6 months through the division are posted on the website.

We are looking at three different ways to provide the training information to the division. One involves using Groove, another the website, and the last an outside company. A decision as to the best method should be made within the next few months.
